

MANIFEST DESTINY in environmental consulting firm on Cape Cod specializing in MCP related projects with growing emphasis in area of water supply and wastewater treatment systems. Looking for senior project manager to lead existing team of highly skilled professionals. Pending retirement of current owner offers near term Principal ownership opportunity to lead well established firm into the future.

Required Skills

- Licensed Site Professional or Professional Engineer in good standing
- BS/BA or advanced degree in Engineering, Geology, Environmental Sciences, or related applicable technical field
- Strong technical skills and excellent oral and written communication skills
- Strong motivation to produce quality work products on budget and on time
- Comfortable working with contractors
- Ability to simultaneously perform on and manage numerous technically complex projects

Required Experience

- Minimum 5 years of Project Management and
- Technical writing of reports for regulatory agencies
Project conceptualization and job estimating and preparing proposals.
- Meetings and presenting to clients and regulatory agencies

The ideal candidate will think both creatively and analytically about new opportunities to market and/or support existing services with new and existing clients to customize professional practice. Full-time position with excellent salary and benefits package. Equal opportunity employer. Send letter of interest and resume to P.O. Box 504, South Orleans, MA 02662.